

IT WAS A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Tombstone Excels in Doing Honor to the Nation's Birthday—Gala Day in Historic City

ONE CONTINUOUS ROUND OF ENJOYMENT

Fourth of July, as it is generally observed in Tombstone, has always been a noteworthy incident, and yesterday's observance of our natal day was not out of the usual except that former occasions were eclipsed. The attendance was large, every section of Cochise county being represented by those from every section of the globe, each a devoted American citizen ready to do homage to the Stars and Stripes, thankful that a beneficent Providence has set aside this section of the hemisphere as an abiding place of the free, untrammelled by king or potentate—a land ruled by the tenantry and free from dictation from any else than conscience.

While the program differed but little from previous occasions there was noticeable a greater unanimity of patriotic display of sentiment and a brotherly feeling manifested that gave assurance that the friendship is cemented beyond abridgement.

The Tombstone City Band, than whom there are few, if any, superior musicians, in the State, enlivened the day with patriotic melodies, causing the happy throng to forget that one thing after another was scheduled to occur, and with such precision and continuity was the excellent program carried out that visitors had only time to remark: "Wasn't that fine? What a delicious, invigorating atmosphere in Tombstone! Wait a moment and listen to that music!" The Tombstone City Band certainly did itself proud!

While crowds moved noiselessly to and fro the march was impeded when the Declaration of Independence—the greatest document from the hand of man—was read by Miss Mazie Webster, who in a masterly, well modulated voice impressed her hearers perceptibly with the profoundness of our forefathers when they enunciated a document that carries conviction and claims respect the universe over.

The barbecue was of a high order of culinary art, eclipsed in no way only by quantity. Especially were the beefs of a superior quality. The bovines were donated by Mr. Henry Street and Mr. William Cowan, respectively, and were the choice of their vast herds.

The oration of the day fell to the lot of Judge Frank W. Goodbody, than whom a more convincing speaker, a more polished orator, could not have been called upon to rekindle the spirit of patriotism and imbue the rising generation with the dignity of American citizenship. The Judge was in good form and his masterly address was highly appreciated.

The pyrotechnical display in the evening was of a safe and sane nature, the explosions and illuminations having been confined to Contention Hill, out of all harm's way. The effects of the combustions were delightful to the vision and generally admired.

The decorations were general throughout the city and many flags served as a protecting canopy to those who revere the Stars and Stripes, whose waves cheer us on to deeds of valor without fear.

The Fourth of July committee is to be commended for the successful manner in which the day was gone through.

The ceremonies of the day closed, both young and aged paired to Gage Hall, where cotillions, two steps and other terpsichorean arts were indulged far into the wee sma' hours, when the happy throng wended its numerous ways home, satisfied that an enjoyable day had been passed. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Tombstone City Band. The exercises will not soon be forgotten.

Mexican Consul at Tucson Claims Arizonans Offered Insult to Mexico Flag—Incident Reported

At Tucson the flag of Mexico was taken from the flag pole of the Mexican consulate of the Huerta government, in the Ivanovich building, yesterday morning, and an American flag hung to the Fourth of July breeze. It is said that two impish young Americans, given the idea by elders, took the flag from the pole while twenty-five or thirty men admiringly watched the act from the other side of the street.

The flag was simply hauled down. Huerta Consul Alejandro Alcala denies that it was "trampled" or otherwise desecrated. The incident was formally reported to Mayor Hoffman by Consul Alcala, who also wired the particulars to the Mexican embassy at Washington and to the general consular offices of the Huerta government at San Francisco.

WANTED—Students in Gregg shorthand. Seventy-five cents a lesson if class of ten is secured. One dollar a lesson for class of less than ten. Mrs. GERTRUDE JAY, Tombstone, Residence, Allen St near 2nd.

Douglas Deals Slap at Bisbee

Probably no one was surprised when the facts came to the surface and it was shown up in Phoenix that the Douglas bunch had absolutely broken faith with the agreement made some three weeks ago in Phoenix when all in attendance, and, that means the Douglas representatives also, agreed that the race would follow the state highway all the way from Douglas to Phoenix via Bisbee Tombstone, Fairbank and on. Douglas has done such things before and as we say no one was surprised that they should try to influence the officials of the great El Paso-Phoenix race to change the route so that it would omit Lowell, Bisbee, Tombstone, Fairbank and all of the state highway from Lowell to Huachuca Siding, but this will not be done. The idea of this race originated with the people of Bisbee and it will go through Bisbee as sure as it is run and not over the flat below Fort Huachuca where it is dangerous to drive a fast car through that maze of wire fence which follows the section lines and which is not any part of the state highway. It is absurd to think that the state officials who are building the state highway which is officially located from Lowell via Bisbee, Tombstone and Fairbank to Huachuca Siding and where at Fairbank is being built for the express purpose of being used, a magnificent concrete bridge 190 feet long. It is, we say, absurd to think the people will stand for any such bonehead play as Douglas is trying to put over. Will Joe Gray stand for it—well you might ask if a duck swims. "We should worry" is the answer.

Tombstone Town Topics Tersely Told Visitors to City; Local and Personal Items of Interest

It was a Glorious Fourth!
Mr Roger Saunders and wife motor, ed over from Gleason to take in the Tombstone celebration.

Constable Lyle Gibson of Gleason headed the Gleason contingent over to the celebration. Lyle, being one of the celebration committee was delighted with the outcome.

Scotty McDonald was among the excursionists over from Bisbee yesterday to attend the big celebration.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday from Fairbank to attend the big doin's in Tombstone were J Pyeatt, Jeff Milton, Judge Barner, Arthur Heney and wife.

Aldona is the suggested by the El Paso and Southwestern railroad for the new station at the Southern Arizona fair grounds instead of Fairland.

This name did not win a prize in the contest for the name of the station which was formerly called Caliche, but the change is suggested for the reason that the name Fairland has only two letters different from Fairbank, another station on the El Paso and Southwestern, and it is feared that much confusion in train orders will result if the name is used.

The proposed name Aldona is a graceful compliment to Al Donan, the Tucson real estate man who has been promoting the development of the region about the new station.

Deputy Clerk of the Court Wilson, left for Douglas today on a business visit.

Tombstone did herself proud on the Fourth. Everybody had a fine time and the celebration was one to be long remembered.

Mrs Axwell and Mrs J H Reeves left today for Phoenix to join Mr Reeves on a trip to the Grand Canyon.

Tombstone celebrated the nation's birthday in a safe and sane manner. It was a grand celebration.

Mr and Mrs Matt Kries and family were among the contingent over from Courtland to attend the big doings. They will remain a few days visiting friends.

Entertain Friends at Banquet

At their cozy residence Thursday afternoon Mr and Mrs John Giacomini entertained a large number of friends, in honor of the christening of their child, Madeline Mary. Miss Eda Ciochetti and Mr Jas Giacomini acted as sponsors. A sumptuous dinner was served during the course of the afternoon, plates being laid for about twenty five. It was an enjoyable affair, after which the party took reluctant leave, bestowing many happy wishes upon the young heirs.

ARIZONA NEWS OF INTEREST

Newsy Notes From All Over Arizona Carefully Condensed for The Prospector Readers

Prospectors are going into the Cottonwood district, the advent of the Clark interests in that district bringing it into prominence. The country surrounding Wright Creek is well mineralized and many good finds are expected to be made.

It is declared that more water is being pumped now than ever before in the history of Douglas, rendering it necessary to employ three pumpmen, each working an eight hour shift, in order to supply the constantly increasing demand.

The Casa Grande Water Users' Association has let a contract for the construction of two and a half miles of their canal to Baxter and Tutt, the Altman-Taylor engine people, of Los Angeles. The contract calls for the removal of all material from the canal for six and one half cents per yard and the work to be completed within two months.

If the baseball fans of Douglas can get together a guarantee of $1,000 the Giants and White Sox will play in that city this fall on their world tour.

Mark Ferguson, head pumper at the Del Rio water plant near Prescott, had his right arm torn into shreds to the elbow joint, recently, as well did he have a miraculous escape from meeting with a horrible death when his hand was caught in the five-foot cog wheel of the large pump.

On the night of the 5th of July the question whether a man can "come back" will be answered when Jack McMahon, who was wrecked in his bout with Frankie Gage at Phoenix about a month ago, will try fatal conclusions with Kid Denister of Bow Island, Alberta, Canada.

Dan Harwick and John Wergensen who have been prospecting between Winkelman and Benson, on the San Pedro river, came to Prescott for supplies. Harwick's claims are about 65 miles from Winkelman and 85 miles from Benson. Mr Harwick brought in some splendid samples of ore from his claims.

The body of a Mexican, who had been dead for probably several days, was found in an Espee freight car soon after it arrived loaded with water pipe. The Mexican very likely had entered the car to beat the railroad out of the price of a ticket and was killed when a piece of pipe fell on his head. There was nothing on the body to indicate the man's identity and he will be buried in Tucson by the county as an "unknown."

Since the road from Yuma to Dome has been put in good shape, the automobiles are coming through Yuma from almost everywhere in large numbers each day. It is no longer possible to note all of them; the number increases daily, and all are pleased with the improved condition of the road. From present indications, in a short time a score or more will stop in Yuma en route to various sections of the United States.

Walter J Roberts was chosen for justice of the peace by the voters of Winkelman in an unofficial election this week.

Report That all Arizona Republi- can Postmasters Will Receive Political Decapitation

A Washington dispatch says:—
Postmaster General Burleson is preparing to make a number of changes in western postmasterhips during the next few weeks. In the shake-up, a number of Republican postmasters in Arizona will be asked to give way to Democrats.

Burleson has written Arthur G Fisk, postmaster at San Francisco, requesting his resignation, but Fisk has refused to comply.

Among those Republican postmasters in Arizona who may be asked to resign are J Knox Corbett, Tucson, M E Cassidy, Bisbee, F E Cadwell, Douglas, and J H McClintock, Phoenix.
